Genealogy in Maryland

Vital records—birth and death records—have been recorded on a statewide basis from 1898 and in Baltimore City from 1875. The State Archives has microfilm copies of the Baltimore City records from 1875 to 1978 and for the various counties from 1914 to 1978, but not all are indexed. Records of birth are restricted for 100 years and death records for twenty years. It is possible, however, to obtain a ''genealogical abstract'' of a restricted record.

Marriage licenses were required by law in Maryland beginning in the late 1700s. All extant records are available at the State Archives and many have been published. Divorces in Maryland were granted by an act of the Maryland Legislature from just after the Revolutionary War until 1852. These divorces have been published in this writer's Divorces and Names Changed in Maryland by Act of the Legislature, 1634–1854 (1970). After 1852 divorce was handled in the county courts.

Because Maryland failed to enforce various laws requiring recordation of vital records until the latter part of the nineteenth century, church records and cemetery inscriptions are of prime importance to genealogical research in Maryland. Records of the Protestant Episcopal Church are for the most part in good shape and widely available. Records of Catholic churches are almost nonexistent for the early years of settlement; those for the period after the American Revolution are much better. Many are available to the public, such as those for Baltimore City which have been microfilmed with copies at both the Maryland Historical Society in Baltimore and the State Archives in Annapolis. Records of the Baltimore Yearly Meeting of Friends have been microfilmed and are available at the State Archives. Records of the various German sect churches are widely available in both published and manuscript form. Records of the Methodist, Presbyterian, and Baptist churches are less available, but can be found at the State Archives and Maryland Historical Society.

Military records for the pre-Revolutionary period are scarce. Extant muster and pay rolls are card-indexed at the Maryland State Archives. A list of soldiers stationed at Fort Frederick, 1757–58, was published in the Maryland Historical Magazine 70 (1975): 104–109. Original records of the Revolutionary state militia are housed at the Maryland State Archives, with copies at the Maryland Historical Society. Maryland also had its share of Loyalist troops in the Revolution. Two of the few published lists are Meyer and Bachmann's ''First Battalion of Maryland Loyalists,'' Maryland Historical Magazine 68 (1973): 199–210 and Paul L. Ford's Orderly Book of the Maryland Loyalist Regiment, June-Oct. 1778.

F. Edward Wright has compiled a seven-volume series entitled Maryland Militia, War of 1812, each volume containing lists for one or more counties. Contributing to further sources of military personnel was the team of Riley and Carrington, compilers of Roster of the Soldiers and Sailors Who Served in Organizations from Maryland during the Spanish-American War. There have been several titles published listing Marylanders in the Civil War, both Union and Confederate troops.

The two-volume work Maryland in the World War, 1917–1919 is the main source of records for veterans of that war, the federal records in St. Louis having been lost in a fire some years ago. Maryland in World War II, Register of Service Personnel is also available in most of the larger libraries in the state.

In recent years there have been some important releases especially helpful in researching African Americans in Maryland—Ralph Clayton's Black Baltimore: 1820–1870; Agnes Kane Callum's Colored Volunteers of Maryland, 7th Regiment U.S. Colored Troops, 1863–1866 and Black Marriages in St. Mary's Co., Md., 1800–1900; and Meyer's Free Blacks in Harford, Somerset and Talbot Counties, Md., 1832 top the list.

For a more detailed description of the records discussed here and of other records such as tax records, rent rolls, and debt books, a bibliography of Maryland history and genealogy, and descriptions of numerous depositories throughout the state, see this writer's Genealogical Research in Maryland: A Guide. Further guidance to research in local areas can be found in Robert W. Barnes' Guide to Research in Baltimore City and County, Donna Valley Russell's Frederick County, Maryland Genealogical Research Guide, and Howard G. Lanham's A Guide to Genealogical Research in Carroll County.

Mary K. Meyer was for many years genealogical reference librarian at the Maryland Historical Society and is currently director of the Anne Arundel Historical and Genealogical Research Center in Glen Burnie, Maryland. She is the author, compiler, or editor of numerous genealogical works. The latest edition of her Genealogical Research in Maryland: A Guide was published in 1992 by the Maryland Historical Society.

We have just been informed by Mrs. Meyer that, as a service to those attending the NGS Conference, the Maryland Historical Society Library will remain open on Thursday, 3 June, until 9:00 P.M.

Genealogy in Maryland

by Mary Keysor Meyer, F.N.G.S.

With the NGS Conference in the States, ''A Chesapeake Homecoming,'' just a few short weeks away, Maryland is gearing up to welcome genealogists from across the nation and to guide them through the complexities of research in ''The Old Line State.''

Maryland is rich in genealogical source material, both published and unpublished. It is a relatively easy state in which to work but, paradoxically, also difficult—if not impossible—at times.

As in most eastern states, the difficulties are caused by lack of record keeping during the early settlement period, loss through carelessness, and destruction by fire and silverfish. However, losses from a fire in the Calvert County Courthouse, which destroyed all records in 1882, and other minor fires in Allegany, Anne Arundel, Charles, and Dorchester counties, are partially offset by records kept on a province-wide basis, such as the Prerogative Court wills, 1634–1776, and records of the Land Office which issued patents to individuals for provincial and state-owned land.

The Maryland State Archives (Hall of Records) at 350 Rowe Boulevard in Annapolis is the most important research center in Maryland for original records both provincial and county, such as land records, birth, death, and marriage records, wills, Prerogative Court records and estate records, and Chancery Court records. Here also are found the vital (birth and death) records of both Baltimore City and the state. Hours at the State Archives are Tuesday through Saturday, 8:30 to 4:30 P.M. It closes during the lunch hour on Saturday.

The State Archives is the central processing department for the statewide newspaper project. Cosponsored by the major Maryland county and college libraries, this project involves locating and microfilming every issue of every known newspaper ever published in the state. There is a published guide to the collection: A guide to the newspaper collection on microfilm at the Maryland State Archives available at that institution.

Across the street from the Maryland State Archives in the Court of Appeals Building is the Maryland State Law Library, commonly called the ''State Library.'' Here one finds the standard printed genealogical and historical source records of the state, including the printed laws of Maryland. This library also houses the most complete collection of the Maryland Gazette, the oldest newspaper in continuous publication in the United States, beginning in 1729. The library is open Monday through Friday, 8:30 A.M. to 4:30 P.M., Thursday evening until 9:00 P.M., and Saturday, 9:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.

If one is looking for published records or indeed for private collections of family papers and diaries, the Maryland Historical Society will command your attention. This library, located at 201 W. Monument Street in Baltimore, is open Tuesday through Friday, 10:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M., and on Saturday, 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M. Here are housed some 50,000 books: published source records, genealogies, and church records. Here can be found one of the rare every-name indexes to the Maryland Historical Magazine and a 350,000-card file of marriage and death notices from various Maryland newspapers, particularly those published in Baltimore. The ships passenger lists for the Port of Baltimore are also available, as are copies of all extant Maryland census records and the International Genealogical Index for Maryland. And more—much, much more.

The George Peabody Library, a subsidiary of the Milton Eisenhower Library of Johns Hopkins University, is located at 17 East Mount Vernon Place, some three blocks east of the Historical Society. Although not a genealogical library per se, it houses one of the finest British record collections on the East Coast. It is probably the only library in the United States that holds every German language book and article indexed in Filby & Meyer's Passenger & Immigration Lists Index. Library hours are Monday through Friday, 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

The Maryland Room at the Enoch Pratt Free Library at 400 Cathedral Street in Baltimore is rich in Marylandia, particularly African-American history. It has an outstanding collection of Maryland newspapers, including the Baltimore Sunpapers from 1837 to the present. Hours are Monday through Saturday, 9:00 A.M. to 5:00 P.M.

The Baltimore City Archives at 211 East Pleasant Street houses records of Baltimore City from 1729 to the present day, including those related to public health, taxation, elections, education, police enforcement, and legislative actions. There is an index to over 300,000 individuals whose names appear on petitions, licenses, bonds, muster rolls, inquests, and lists of policemen, firemen, and other law enforcement officers. There is a card index to the ''City Passenger Lists'' of passengers entering the Port of Baltimore, 1833–1866. Here also are microfilm copies of naturalizations in the Baltimore Federal Court for 1797–1906, 1918–1923, and 1925–1951. The 1868 police census of certain wards gives the country of birth and dates of naturalization of foreign-born residents as well as other standard census information. Interment records for 1834–1840 and coroners reports are also housed in the City Archives. Hours are Tuesday through Friday, 9:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.

Preface and Acknowledgments

Military pension records often supply important vital statistics for genealogical research, particularly for the early period in the development of the United States. The records indexed in this book chronicle payments made to invalid soldiers who served in the Revolutionary War and the frontier wars after 1783.

The source document is a cloth-bound payment ledger, 18 by 25½ inches and about three inches thick, titled Revolutionary War and Acts of Military Establishment, Invalid Pensioners Payments, March 1801 through September 1815.[1] Because it survived the burning of Washington, D.C. by the British Army in August 1814, and a Treasury Department fire in 1833, I mention the size of this ledger to indicate the magnitude of effort required to remove this book and other similar records to safety.

In the ledger, the records are organized by state and further subdivided into three sections. The first section (pages 2 through 63) covers the states of New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Vermont, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Georgia and South Carolina for the period March 4, 1801[2] through March 4, 1809. The second section (pages 64 through 130) covers the same states for the period September 5, 1809 through September 5, 1815. The third section (pages 131 through 148) adds Kentucky Territory, Tennessee, Ohio, Indiana Territory, Missouri Territory, Michigan Territory, the [1] This volume has been rebound and page 80 has been inserted after page 78. Therefore the data on the left-hand side of the ledger does not match the entries on the right-hand side on pages 78, 79 and 80. However, in this index, the proper data has been matched with the correct name.

[2] The reporting period for this ledger began on March 4, 1801, the same day that Thomas Jefferson was inaugurated as the third president of the United States. Ironically the ledger ends in 1815, the year the Treaty of Ghent was ratified ending the War of 1812.

Silas Haley, p. 1154

SILAS HALEY, probably the oldest, and one of the most prominent, merchants in the Monongahela Valley, is the son of Sedgwick Haley, whose father was born in Ireland, and came to America many years ago, when he married a Miss Jeans. Of the children born to this union the following named: Daniel, James, Hohn, Richard, Enoch and Sedgwick. The father of this family was a Democrat in plotical opinions, and in religion a member of the Presbyterian Church. He died in Holmes County, Ohio.

Sedgwick Haley was born and reared in Holmes county, Ohio, and attended the schools of the neighborhood, passing his youth on the home place. A few years after attaining his majority he chose his wife, Rebecca Dailey, a native of Washington county, Penn., and the young couple resided in Middletown, Ohio, for five years after their marriage. They then removed to a farm in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, where the remainder of their lives was passed. He was identified with the Whig party, and served ten years as justice of the peace; he was equally zelous in religious matters, as an active member of the M. E. Church. He died in his forty-fourth year, leaving to mourn his loss a widow and nine children: Jefferson, simeon, Sarah, John, Silas, Mary and Sedgwick Itwins), Rebecca and Charles.

Silas Haley was born July 30, 1832, in Holmes county, Ohio. He learned the tailor's trade, and at the age of eighteen years came to Monongahela City, where he followed that vocation until 1854, when he opened a clothing establishment which he has since conducted. On March 10, 1853 , he was united in marriage with Mary C., daughter of Levi Priggs, a native of Huntingdon county, Penn., and three children blessed this union, namely: Rebecca wife of W. C. Robinson; C. E. and William A. Mr. Haley was originally a whig, and is now a republican; he has served as a member of the council. In religious faith he is an ernest, active member of the M. E. Church.

Dear Mr. Cramer,

Last Friday while I was working at the library, my daughter, who works at the recorders office, said that you were researching the HEALY family. Today when I went to the Library, I see that you had visited it on Saturday.

I helped form the Holmes County Genealogical Society 2½ years ago and have served as its editor for about 2 years. I also have done extensive researchin Holmes County. As a volunteer, I researched over 300 families but the crush got so much that I have recently gone professional.

Last week I was asked to research the HEALY family for a photographer in Arroyo Grande, CA who descends from Sarah and McDonald Caster. I was able to put together three generations. I also found the guardianships for James and his 8 siblings after his father died. You may have found his dad's grave in Salt Creek Twp.

I am sorry that you did not visit the library on Friday as I could have shown you a wealth of information available there and in the attic of the courthouse.
I also have a copy of the family bible of James grandparent's which shows the marriage of his parents and the births of his mothers siblings as well as his maternal grandparents.

I have yet to work on the Matthews although I venture to guess that Catherine's parents were probably Samuel and Rhoda.

Perhaps we shall meet if you come this way again.

Sincerely,

Dave Marshall

DEAR ROENA,

DAVE MARSHALL FOUND TWO GENERATIONS OF MY HALEYS, WHICH ARE RICHARD AND JOHN. I SEE YOUR JOHN IN THE 1850 CENSUS OF HOLMES CO. COULD YOUR JAMES HALEY BE THE BROTHER OF MY RICHARD HALEY?

WAS YOUR CATHARINE BORN IN HOLMES CO? I AM CHECKING THE CENSUS ON THESE EARLY HALEYS, BUT THEY DON'T LIST NAMES BEFORE 1850.

ARE YOU CLOSE TO GETTYSBURG, PA.? I HAVE BEEN THERE SEVERAL TIMES AS MY LINE CAME OUT OF YORK CO P.A. I HAVE A BROTHER THAT LIVES AT GLEN BURNIE, M.D.

I'M SENDING YOU THE LETTERS THAT DAVE SENT ME, WHICH WILL BRING YOU UP TO DATE ON MY HALEYS.

I HAVEN'T SPENT A LOT OF TIME ON THE HALEY LINE AS YOU MAY SEE.

Dear Mr. Cramer,

This summer my cousin and I spent a few days in Holmes Co. searching for information on our Bayes and Haley ancestors. While there I learned that you also were searching the Haley family.

I probably don't have anything that you have not already found but would like to hear from you and if you have and leads that I could follow up on here in Maryland or at the Nat. Archives or DAR, I certainly would be interested in doing so.

Inclosed is a SASE and a chart showing the Haley connection.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Haley

SALT CREEK TOWNSHIP

Census of 1820- Family order number-ⓧ
158 Families

15 October 1985

Dear Mr. Cramer,

Last Friday while I was working at the library, my daughter, who works at the recorders office, said that you were researching the HEALY family. Today when I went to the Library, I see that you had visited it on Saturday.

I helped form the Holmes County Genealogical Society 2½ years ago and have served as its editor for about 2 years. I also have done extensive researchin Holmes County. As a volunteer, I researched over 300 families but the crush got so much that I have recently gone professional.

Last week I was asked to research the HEALY family for a photographer in Arroyo Grande, CA who descends from Sarah and McDonald Caster. I was able to put together three generations. I also found the guardianships for James and his 8 siblings after his father died. You may have found his dad's grave in Salt Creek Twp.

I am sorry that you did not visit the library on Friday as I could have shown you a wealth of information available there and in the attic of the courthouse.
I also have a copy of the family bible of James grandparent's which shows the marriage of his parents and the births of his mothers siblings as well as his maternal grandparents.

I have yet to work on the Matthews although I venture to guess that Catherine's parents were probably Samuel and Rhoda.

Perhaps we shall meet if you come this way again.

Sincerely,

Dave Marshall

Dear Mr. Cramer,

I received your letter this afternoon while on the way to work as a volunteer at the Library - something which I do each Friday from 1 - 5. The first thing which I did when I got there was to read the Haley story which you had left in the file cabinet.

I began researching the HALEY family about a month ago for Hubert A. Lowman of 11015 Bobcat Lane, Arroyo Grande, CA 93420. Mr. Lowman was refered to me by Leland Castor for whom I had done some CASTOR research. His line was McDaniel Castor who had married Sarah Healy He wished to know if we could establish Sarah's parents and what I found suprised us both.

Richard Healy first appears in local records when he is listed in the Wayne Co. 1810 Census (one of the few Ohio Counties Census to survive the War of 1812). In the Recorder's office at Holmes County - you may have found a deed in Vol. #11 (Transcipt book), page 215 - this land wss actually a 99 year lease, renewable forever. The purchase was made at the land office in Mansfield and the date is 25 June 1810.

On 3 February 1814, Richard and Rachael Healy sold this land to Andrew Clark and this is recorded in Vol. 11/ page 217. No other purchases are listed but the tax records and later sales of land show that Richard bought Fraction section #10, Township 14, Range 12. This land is on the Greenville Treaty Line just SouthWest of Mt. Hope.

As you noted - Richard Healy is buried at the Wolgamot Cemetery in Salt Creek Twp. He was only 38 years old when he died on 18 September 1824. On 16 Dec. 1825 - David Snyder and Peter Miller were appointed as administrators to his estate. It is noted that he died intestate. I have included 3 different entries from Journal #1. Through this series of entries we are given the children of Richard and Rachael Healy. They are - John, Mary, Sarah, James, Nancy, Lucinda, Richard, Stephen and Enoch. The reason that Jame's name appears twice is that by 1828 he was 14 years old and by law was able to choose his own guardian.

Richard Healy had married Rachael Cotton. The enclosed copies from the Cotton Bible were sent me by a lady in Canton. She said the actual bible was in the hands of a cousin who had let her borrow it. As you can see the Healy's were married in 1807. Rachael's parents were John Cotton and Mary Ricketts. The Cottons are also buried at Wolgamot Cemetery. John Cotton - Died 15 July 1818, 70 years. Mary Cotton, Died 24 November 1833, age 78 years. However, you will notice that part of her birthdate is given in the bible - it shows her birth as 20 September and deducting 78 from 1833 gives a birth year of 1755.

I am not positive where in PA the Cottons or Healys came from but they must have lived in the same area. In the PA 1810 Census there is a John Cotton living in Ohio Twp., Beaver Co., PA. This could well be Rachael's father as most of the early Salt Creek pioneers came from Beaver County.

Now when I first studied the Healy's - I assumed that Richard was the patriarch. However, a closer look proved that this was wrong. He was the forerunner but his parents and sibling followed him to Salt Creek Twp.

I discovered that the 1830 Census shows - John Healy living in Salt Creek at the 70/80 age group with his wife listed as 60/70. John Healy lived on Fractional Section #11 in Salt Creek Twp. He had a patent from President James Monroe dated 20 January 1819 and recorded in Vol. #12/ page 98. This lies just to the East of the land where Richard lived. Although we find no estate or will for John - he appears on the tax rolls in 1831 and he's missing in 1832. However, in the various deeds - I find that John's wife is listed as Sarah and. They are deeds from John to Sedgwick and John to Daniel in which he names them as sons. However, in Vol. #2, page 524 - Sedgewick sells his share of John's estate to Daniel and on the following page - Daniel sells this to Sarah, John's widow.

After studying all the records , the children of John and Sarah appear to be -Richard, Sedgewick, James, Joseph, Elisabeth, Sarah and Daniel. Marriages for several of these which were recorded in Wayne County are :

Daniel Healy - Jemima Twaddle - 18 Nov. 1824

Joseph Healy - Rebecca Quinn - 3 Feb. 1814

fS Elizabeth Healy - John Wolgamot - 1 March 1814

Sarah Healy - McDonald Castor - 3 Sept. 1818

In the 1850 Census - Sarah Healy is still living , in the household of her daughter Sarah Castor. She is listed as being 88 years old and born in Maryland. I find no record of her death or no cemetery record. Nor do I find any record of Racheal. It would appear that she may have moved elsewhere with one of the children.

James Healy's older brother - John married Maria Wolgamot 10 July 1842 and I find them buried at Fredricksburg East Cemetery in Wayne County. John Healy (1808 - 1857), Maria (1818 - 1892). His sister, Mary married Josiah Slutts, and they are buried in the Slutts Cemetery in Salt Creek Twp. Her stone says : Mary Healy, wife of Josiah Slutts - Died 10 August 1889, age - 77 years, 9 months, 9 days. She is a direct descendant of the husband of our Society's recording secretary, Jean Slutz.

You will also note that the Cotton Bible listed the births of the first four children of Richard and Rachael. Now I believe that this concludes the information I have on the Healy family.

However, after reading the piece on the Healy family - I thought that I would see if I could find anything on the Matthews. A check of the 1850 Holmes County Census shows Samuel Matthews living in Salt Creek Twp. He is 60 years old and born in Ireland. Phebe or (Rhoda) as it is also listed is 57 but is shown as being born in PA. Living with them is son James age 28, born PA and Hannah age 19 born in OH. A check of the marriage records show that James Matthews married Hannah Hinkle on 22 Feb. 1849. In addition to Catherine and James Healy there is one other Matthews marriage from the Salt Creek area. This is Leonard Matthews to Harriet Slutz on 18 Nov. 1847. A preliminary check of the census failed to find him but I finally located him - the census taker had spelled his name Mathes. He is shown as 24, born in PA and Harriett is 23, born in OH. Samuel and Phebe are buried at t Cananan Baptist Cemetery. I believe they sold the land for the church. The readings are

S. MATTHEWS, Died - 24 October 1875 - 80 years, 14 days; Pheobe (Rhoda) - Died 9 March 1864 - 67 years, 5 months, 2 days.

James and Hannah Matthews are buried at the Fryburg Cemetery near Benton. Their readings are - James Matthews, died 13 October 1861, 40 years, 16 days; w/Hannah Hinkle - Died 13 January 1873, 42 years.

I find no estate record for Samuel or Phebe. The index shows an estate for James but I did not look up the papers as they would not have any information pertinent to Samuel. Leonard apparently left the area as there are no cemetery readings on he or his wife. I have also included copies of the 1875 plat map of Salt Creek Twp. from the Holmes Co. Atlas and the one which I believe you spoke of - Salt Creek in 1860 which was taken from a wall map found in the old Saltillo Post Office and now at the Historical Society.

I did not list James and Catherine's Census reading as I am sure you are familiar with it

My normal charge is $6 / hr. and I probably worked about 1½ hrs. on the research.

I am satisfied to call us even at this point. I do have your other SASE and if you have additional questions or need other information - just drop a line. I hope that this has helped you in establishing your Healy background.

Yours Truly,

Dave Marshall

A check of the marriage records show that James Matthews married Hannah Hinkle on 22 Feb. 1849. In addition to Catherine and James Healy there is one other Matthews marriage from the Salt Creek area. This is Leonard Matthews to Harriet Slutz on 18 Nov. 1847. A preliminary check of the census failed to find him but I finally located him - the census taker had spelled his name Mathes. He is shown as 24, born in PA and Harriett is 23, born in OH. Samuel and Phebe are buried at t Cananan Baptist Cemetery. I believe they sold the land for the church. The readings are

S. MATTHEWS, Died - 24 October 1875 - 80 years, 14 days; Pheobe (Rhoda) - Died 9 March 1864 - 67 years, 5 months, 2 days.

James and Hannah Matthews are buried at the Fryburg Cemetery near Benton. Their readings are - James Matthews, died 13 October 1861, 40 years, 16 days; w/Hannah Hinkle - Died 13 January 1873, 42 years.

I find no estate record for Samuel or Phebe. The index shows an estate for James but I did not look up the papers as they would not have any information pertinent to Samuel. Leonard apparently left the area as there are no cemetery readings on he or his wife. I have also included copies of the 1875 plat map of Salt Creek Twp. from the Holmes Co. Atlas and the one which I believe you spoke of - Salt Creek in 1860 which was taken from a wall map found in the old Saltillo Post Office and now at the Historical Society.

I did not list James and Catherine's Census reading as I am sure you are familiar with it My normal charge is $6 / hr. and I probably worked about 1½ hrs. on the research.

I am satisfied to call us even at this point. I do have your other SASE and if you have additional questions or need other information - just drop a line. I hope that this has helped you in establishing your Healy background.

Dear Mr. Cramer,

I received your letter this afternoon while on the way to work as a volunteer at the Library - something which I do each Friday from 1 - 5. The first thing which I did when I got there was to read the Haley story which you had left in the file cabinet.

I began researching the HALEY family about a month ago for Hubert A. Lowman of 11015 Bobcat Lane, Arroyo Grande, CA 93420. Mr. Lowman was refered to be me by Leland Castor for whom I had done some CASTOR research. His line was McDaniel Castor who had married Sarah HeALY He wished to know if we could establish Sarah's parents and what I found suprised us both.

Richard Healy first appears in local records when he is listed in the Wayne Co. 1810 Census (one of the few Ohio Counties Census to survive the War of 1812). In the Recorder's office at Holmes County - you may have found a deed in Vol. #11 (Transcipt book), page 215 - this land wss actually a 99 year lease, renewable forever. The purchase was made at the land office in Mansfield and the date is 25 June 1810.

On 3 February 1814, Richard and Rachael Healy sold this land to Andrew Clark and this is recorded in Vol. 11/ page 217. No other purchases are listed but the tax records and later sales of land show that Richard bought Fraction section #10, Township 14, Range 12. This land is on the Greenville Treaty Line just SouthWest of Mt. Hope.

As you noted - Richard Healy is buried at the Wolgamot Cemetery in Salt Creek Twp. He was only 38 years old when he died on 18 September 1824. On 16 Dec. 1825 - David Snyder and Peter Miller were appointed as administrators to his estate. It is noted that he died intestate. I have included 3 different entries from Journal #1. Through this series of entries we are given the children of Richard and Rachael Healy. They are - John, Mary, Sarah, James, Nancy, Lucinda, Richard, Stephen and Enoch. The reason that Jame's name appears twice is that by 1828 he was 14 years old and by law was able to choose his own guardian.

Richard Healy had married Rachael Cotton. The enclosed copies from the Cotton Bible were sent me by a lady in Canton. She said the actual bible was in the hands of a cousin who had let her borrow it. As you can see the Healy's were married in 1807. Rachael's parents were John Cotton and Mary Ricketts. The Cottons are also buried at Wolgamot Cemetery. John Cotton - Died 15 July 1818, 70 years. Mary Cotton, Died 24 November 1833, age 78 years. However, you will notice that part of her birthdate is given in the bible - it shows her birth as 20 September and deducting 78 from 1833 gives a birth year of 1755.

I am not positive where in PA the Cottons or Healys came from but they must have lived in the same area. In the PA 1810 Census there is a John Cotton living in Ohio Twp., Beaver Co., PA. This could well be Rachael's father as most of the early Salt Creek pioneers came from Beaver County.

Now when I first studied the Healy's - I assumed that Richard was the patriarch. However, a closer look proved that this was wrong. He was the forerunner but his parents and siblings followed him to Salt Creek Twp.

I discovered that the 1830 Census shows - John Healy living in Salt Creek at the 70/80 age group with his wife listed as 60/70. John Healy lived on Fractional Section #11 in Salt Creek Twp. He had a patent from President James Monroe dated 20 January 1819 and recorded in Vol. #12/ page 98. This lies just to the East of the land where Richard lived. Although we find no estate or will for John - he appears on the tax rolls in 1831 and his missing in 1832. However, in the various deeds - I find that John's wife is listed as Sarah and. There are deeds from John to Sedgwick and John to Daniel in which he names them as sons. However, in Vol. #2, page 524 - Sedgewick sells his share of John's estate to Daniel and on the following page - Daniel sells this to Sarah, John's widow.

After studying all the records , the children of John and Sarah appear to be -Richard, Sedgewick, James, Joseph, Elisabeth, Sarah and Daniel. Marriages for several of these which were recorded in Wayne County are :

Daniel Healy - Jemima Twaddle - 18 Nov. 1824
Joseph Healy - Rebecca Quinn - 3 Feb. 1814
Elizabeth Healy - John Wolgamot - 1 March 1814
Sarah Healy - McDonald Castor - 3 Sept. 1818

In the 1850 Census - Sarah Healy is still living , in the household of her daughter Sarah Castor. She is listed as being 88 years old and born in Maryland. I find no record of her death or no cemetery record. Nor do I find any record of Racheal. It would appear that she may have moved elsewhere with one of the children.

James Healy's older brother - John married Maria Wolgamot 10 July 1842 and I find them buried at Fredricksburg East Cemetery in Wayne County. John Healy (1808 - 1857), Maria (1818 - 1892). His sister, Mary married Josiah Slutts, and they are buried in the Slutts Cemetery in Salt Creek Twp. Her stone says : Mary Healy, wife of Josiah Slutts - Died 10 August 1889, age - 77 years, 9 months, 9 days. She is a direct descendant of the husband of our Society's recording secretary, Jean Slutz.

You will also note that the Cotton Bible listed the births of the first four children of Richard and Rachael. Now I believe that this concludes the information I have on the Healy family.

However, after reading the piece on the Healy family - I thought that I would see if I could find anything on the Matthews. A check of the 1850 Holmes County Census shows Samuel Matthews living in Salt Creek Twp. He is 60 years old and born in Ireland. Phebe or (Rhoda) as it is also listed is 57 but is shown as being born in PA. Living with them is son James age 28, born PA and Hannah age 19 born in OH. A check of the marriage records show that James Matthews married Hannah Hinkle on 22 Feb. 1849. In addition to Catherine and James Healy there is one other Matthews marriage from the Salt Creek area. This is Leonard Matthews to Harriet Slutz on 18 Nov. 1847. A preliminary check of the census failed to find him but I finally located him - the census taker had spelled his name Mathes. James and Hannah Matthews are buried at the Fryburg Cemetery near Benton. Their readings are - James Matthews, died 13 October 1861, 40 years, 16 days; w/Hannah Hinkle - Died 13 January 1873, 42 years.

Dear Roger,

Thanks for your letter and the family sheets that you inclosed. I'm sure that we are cousins and believe that my James is a brother of your Richard.

I have delayed writing so that I could send a copy of a map and deeds that I found when I spent a day at the Md. State Archives in Annapolis.on Nov. 30. It takes about a month to get what one orders so I thaought they would be here by now but since they have not arrived I'm sending what I found and will make copies of deeds & map when they arrive.

I believe our Haley ancestors lived in Shrewsbury Parish, (Kent) MD. The family sheets inclosed all indicate the source of my information.

I spent most of the day in Annapolis searching deeds. The earliest one found was dated the 7th month the 10th day in the second year of the reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Second of Great Britain, France, & Ireland. (Some where I learned how to translate this into a meaningful date but I admit I forgot. The grantor of this deed was : Gideon Pearce (Kent) MD
    Grantee : John Haley (Kent) MD Plantor
Parcel of Land: St. Andrews Cross 200A
I will receive a copy of this Deed.

By 1783 John Haley and Sarah his wife deeded land of the following tracts:
- Mieres Luck
- Marsha Point
- Margrets' Delight

On Sept. 22, 1755 William Haley granted to John Wilson a few acres ofrom the Tract, "St. Andrews Cross"

On Sept. 27, 1787 John & Sarah his wife deeded land to Wm. Gay. that parcel of land descended to the aforesaid Sarah by her deceased father John Wilson. The Tract: Margarets Delight.

I will receive a copy of this deed.

I believe that our first common ancestor is John Haley and his wife Sarah (Wilson) Haley. If so her father's name being John Wilson.

I almost missed this, as I had read deed after deed all beginning this indenture etc,dtc and I thought should I read this thing clear through as I only had about fifteen minutes left. Then I said to myself, yea, you better - I turned the page and thats ehen I read that parcel of land descendded to the afsd, Sarah by her deceased father John Wilson.

My cousin Anna Buda and I have been making trips to Holmes County almost every summer for several years. We have been concentrating on the Bayes family as her mother and my dad were brother and sister. They came into Holmes Co. from Somerset Co. PA. The Bayes clan left Holmes Co. and moved to Fulton Co. Only a few remained behind. Great grandfather Thomas Bayes married Catharine HALEY 25 Oct. 1839 (Holmes) OH. Catharine was born 18 May 1815 and is buried in the BAYES Cem. just outside of Wauseon. Her parents James HALEY and Hester (? ∠) are also buried there. Of all the families we have searched we have not even as much as run across one with a Hester.

Annie and I spent an evening with Dave Marshall at his home on our last night in Holmes Co. this past summer and we had a fine time talking genealogy. When I get all my papers from Annapolis I will send them to Dave and have him analyze them and see if he can advise what records I might be overlooking.

I have many other tid bits such as Hist. of Tuscarawas Co. OH, 1884 p6 902: David Everhart & John HALEY were struck by lightning in 1839 and killed.

Thomas Haley, William Haley & John Haley all served in the Revolutionary War. All from MD

John Haley, Cpl. 3rd MD Regt. 7th Company.

I can't make up my mind if I should send for the will of John HALEY dated 1755 (Kent) MD or if I should take another day in the next couple weeks and do another day of researching.

I usually make two trips to Ohio every year. My closest relatives live around Bryan & Defiance. I was born and raised in Farmer. I'm a retired Med. Tech. from National Institutes of Health, Bethesda, MD. Came up here to the Valley to live in 1980. My brother Al and my sister in law Mary and I built a house and live here together. We're just eight miles west of Gettysburg.

With what generation does your Haley line begin? I think I mentioned that mine begins with my great grandmother. Inclosed is a picture of my great grandparents Thomas and Catharine (Haley) BAYES.

Every time I get ready to stop I go on to another paragraph so I'm going to stop now. Be looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Roena

Dear Roena,

I really enjoyed your visit and hope that you found more material after you were able to sort through things at home. I am finally somewhat caught up and thought that I would get a few of my own things in order before I launch out for others again.

I spoke to you about the possibility of doing a little CROM/CRUM research in Adams Co. so here are the facts as we know them.

From his obit in the RELIGIOUS TELESCOPE we have these items given : REV. JOHN CROM was born in Lancaster, PA on 5 Jan. 1781. Became a member of the United Brethern Church on 22 December 1800. Married MARGARET MILLER - 19 May 1801. Moved to Harrison County Ohio in April 1806. Began preaching in 1808. Moved to Wood Co., Oh in 1831. Died 5 Feb. 1851 in Wood Co.

I find that in 1780 there was a JOHN KRUM in Heidelberg Twp., Lancaster Co. at Sheffer's Town. He appears in the 1779 and 1782 Chattle Taxes.

First three children: Jacob, 15 May 1802, Elizabeth - May 1803, Daniel 18 May 1805 are all suppose to have been born in Adams Co., PA. Daniel's obit lists Adams Co. as his birthplace.

Would be interested in possibility that John and Margaret married there also. I guess what I need to begin with is to see if a John can be located in Adams Co. in this time frame (1802 - 1806). If so, possibly in chattle tax records, which Twp. is he living in. Could you check to see if he owned land although I doubt it for no longer than he remained. Also - if he is a son of one of the Crom/Crums living there - the possibility exists that he might be named in a will or a quit claim deed.

If there is any cost involved - let me know and I shall be glad to pay.

Sincerely,

Dave Marshall

Dear Donna,

I really enjoyed your visit and hope that you found more material after you were able to sort through things at home. I am finally somewhat caught up and thought that I would get a few of my own things in order before I launch out for others again.

I spoke to you about the possibility of doing a little CROW/CRAW research in Adams Co. so here are the facts as we know them.

From his obit in the RELIGIOUS TELESCOPE we have these items given : REV. JACOB CROW was born in Lancaster, PA on 5 Jan. 1780. Became a member of the United Brethren Church on 22 December 1800. Married MARGARET MILLER - 13 May 1801. Moved to Harrison County, Ohio in April 1823. Began preaching in 1825. Moved to Wood Co., OH in 1831. Died 5 Feb. 1854 in Wood Co.

I find that in 1783 there was a JACOB CROW in Heidelberg Twp., Lancaster Co. at Shaefer's town. He appears in the 1779 and 1782 [illegible] Records.

First three children: Jacob, 15 May 1802, Elizabeth - May 1803, Daniel 10 May 1805 are all supposed to have been born in Adams Co., PA. Daniel's obit lists Adams Co. as his birthplace.

It would be logical to assume the possibility that John and Margaret married there also.

I guess what I need to establish is to see if John can be located in Adams Co. in this time period (1801 - 1805). If so, possibly in church tax records, which Twp. he is living in. Could you check to see if he owned land although I doubt it for no longer than he remained, also - if he is a son of one of the Crow/Craw living there - the possibility exists that he might be named in a will or a court claim deed.

If there is any cost involved - let me know and I shall be glad to pay.

Sincerely,

Dave Parsell

In the 1830 Census, John Haley was living in Salt Creek Twp., in the 70/80 age group and wife Sarah listed in 60/70. In deeds he lists two sons, Sedgewick and Daniel. It appears Daniel has wife Jemima.

Silas Haley, p. 1154

SILAS HALEY, probably the oldest, and one of the most prominent, merchants in the Monongahela Valley, is the son of Sedgwick Haley, whose father was born in Ireland, and came to America many years ago, when he married a Miss Jeans. Of the children born to this union the following named: Daniel, James, Hohn, Richard, Enoch and Sedgwick. The father of this family was a Democrat in plotical opinions, and in religion a member of the Presbyterian Church. He died in Holmes County, Ohio.

Sedgwick Haley was born and reared in Holmes county, Ohio, and attended the schools of the neighborhood, passing his youth on the home place. A few years after attaining his majority he chose his wife, Rebecca Dailey, a native of Washington county, Penn., and the young couple resided in Middletown, Ohio, for five years after their marriage. They then removed to a farm in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, where the remainder of their lives was passed. He was identified with the Whig party, and served ten years as justice of the peace; he was equally zelous in religious matters, as an active member of the M. E. Church. He died in his forty-fourth year, leaving to mourn his loss a widow and nine children: Jefferson, simeon, Sarah, John, Silas, Mary and Sedgwick Itwins), Rebecca and Charles.

Silas Haley was born July 30, 1832, in Holmes county, Ohio. He learned the tailor's trade, and at the age of eighteen years came to Monongahela City, where he followed that vocation until 1854, when he opened a clothing establishment which he has since conducted. On March 10, 1853 , he was united in marriage with Mary C., daughter of Levi Priggs, a native of Huntingdon county, Penn., and three children blessed this union, namely: Rebecca wife of W. C. Robinson; C. E. and William A. Mr. Haley was originally a whig, and is now a republican; he has served as a member of the council. In religious faith he is an ernest, active member of the M. E. Church.

WASHINGTON COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA EARLY MARRIAGE INDEX

Compiled by Citizens Library Genealogical Records Group

The Genealogical Society of Southwestern Pennsylvania

Silas Haley, p. 1154

SILAS HALEY, probably the oldest, and one of the most prominent, merchants in the Monongahela Valley, is the son of Sedgwick Haley, whose father was born in Ireland, and came to America many years ago, when he married a Miss Jeans. Of the children born to this union the following named: Daniel, James, Hohn, Richard, Enoch and Sedgwick. The father of this family was a Democrat in plotical opinions, and in religion a member of the Presbyterian Church. He died in Holmes County, Ohio.

Sedgwick Haley was born and reared in Holmes county, Ohio, and attended the schools of the neighborhood, passing his youth on the home place. A few years after attaining his majority he chose his wife, Rebecca Dailey, a native of Washington county, Penn., and the young couple resided in Middletown, Ohio, for five years after their marriage. They then removed to a farm in Tuscarawas county, Ohio, where the remainder of their lives was passed. He was identified with the Whig party, and served ten years as justice of the peace; he was equally zelous in religious matters, as an active member of the M. E. Church. He died in his forty-fourth year, leaving to mourn his loss a widow and nine children: Jefferson, simeon, Sarah, John, Silas, Mary and Sedgwick Itwins), Rebecca and Charles.

Silas Haley was born July 30, 1832, in Holmes county, Ohio. He learned the tailor's trade, and at the age of eighteen years came to Monongahela City, where he followed that vocation until 1854, when he opened a clothing establishment which he has since conducted. On March 10, 1853 , he was united in marriage with Mary C., daughter of Levi Priggs, a native of Huntingdon county, Penn., and three children blessed this union, namely: Rebecca wife of W. C. Robinson; C. E. and William A. Mr. Haley was originally a whig, and is now a republican; he has served as a member of the council. In religious faith he is an ernest, active member of the M. E. Church.

Mt. Hope - First Called Middletown

The original name of the village was Middletown, probably so named because it was located in the center of four other small towns. Benton was located on the west of the village, Mt. Eaton on the north, Winesburg on the east and Berlin on the south. Since there was another town in Ohio by the name of Middletown, much mail was sent to the wrong place. The new name that was chosen was Mt. Hope. Why this particular name was chosen, nobody was able to inform me.

Thinking about small towns, my thoughts turned to Mt. Hope. I remember this village mostly because of my baseball days as a member of the Walnut Creek team. Both Walnut Creek and Mt. Hope had good teams, and when these two teams met, one could always expect a good crowd and a good game. Some of the baseball players from this village that come to my mind are Glenn (Moke) Summers, Wilbur and Sam Inks, Dave and Chuck Lowe, Dale Aufrance, Frenchy Girard, Brian Spencer, George Spake and Ralph Merthey. George Inks was their umpire. Many of these memories came back to me when I visited the village in search for material for this article.

THE VILLAGE REMAINS SMALL

The village of Mt. Hope was never able to reach the size as was planned by the early settlers due to not being on the main highway and the lack of railroad connections. At one time, however, there was quite a bit of activity in the village with a number of merchants, doctors, a hotel, cabinet maker, undertaker, tailor and shoemakers. Most of these are not found in the village anymore, but not all "hope" is lost because they have a store, restaurant, mill, furniture store, hardware, harness shop, blacksmith shop, Wayne Door Company, post office, Cloth Shoppe, and an auction barn. In addition to this, the village is blessed with many very fine citizens as I discovered when I visited with the people.

JOHN McCLURE

John McClure, one of the founders of the town, was born in Pennsylvania of Irish parents in 1787. He came to Ohio between the years 1820 and 1826 at approximately the age of 35. He was married and the father of eleven children. He must have been quite wealthy because records show that he owned much land in several parts of Holmes County. John McClure was the Great Grandfather of Mrs. Lawrence McClure. Others who helped to get the village started were Sedgewick Healy, George Painter and Edward Cotton. No doubt these men were attracted to this place by the fertile soil, water and the progress of the towns nearby.

THE ORIGINAL PLAT

It was on November 24, 1827 that John McClure, Sedgewick Healy, George Painter and Edward Cotton drew the plat of 40 acres for the town and each set apart and vacated 1/4 of the original plat. The original plat for the village of Mt. Hope (Middletown) extended east and west from the alley of the late Tena Karch (now R.S. Miller) which was named Crawford Street to the drive of the late Mrs. Sarah Rudy's property (now Miss Dena Wengerd). North and south, named Clay Street, it extended from where the scale house used to be to Mrs. Minnie Yoder's drive (now Raber property). The main street north and south was named Adams, and the east and west was named Jackson. These two streets were 66 feet wide, Crawford and Clay 33 feet wide and the alleys 10 feet.

It is interesting to note that George Painter gave the N.W. portion of his farm, John McClure the N.E., Edward Cotton the S.E. and Sedgewick the S.W. to form the original plat. The plat was surveyed by Samuel Robinson, the first county surveyor,

68 MARY JEAN KAUFFMAN CARR

Mary Jean, the fourth child of Jean and Paul Kauffman was born on August 3, 1957. She was a lively, inquisitive child, who enjoyed playing with her older brothers and sister.

During her school years, her love for animals, especially cats, steadily increased. For several years she enjoyed all types of kittens including registered Persian kittens. At 7 years of age Mary Jean began piano lessons. Her talents in music were great! As a sophomore in high school, she continued her piano lessons with an instructor from Ashland College. She enjoyed accompanying the high school choirs and solo groups. Later, during her college years, she studied the organ. During her high school years, Mary Jean discovered the fascinating art of sewing.

In Septemer 1974, Mary Jean, a high school senior, was chosen queen for the Holmes County Antique Festival. The Paul Kauffman family enjoyed two festival queens in their family. Mary Jean enjoyed traveling throughout the state of Ohio promoting the Holmes County Festival. In June of 1975, at the age of 17, Mary Jean graduated from Loudonville High School with honors.

Three years later in June of 1978, Mary Jean graduated Cum Laude in Fashion Merchandising from Kent State University. Her love for sewing abounded, and she had taken all the available sewing courses at college. During her senior year at Kent State, she was president of Chi Omega Sorority and an officer in the Home Economics Honorary. On June 17, 1978, a few days after college graduation, Mary Jean married her high school sweetheart, Kim Carr. She managed the Piece Goods Fabric Shop in Mansfield for two years.

Today Mary Jean and Kim live with their two sons Brad (age 5) and Ryan (age 3) in Loudonville. Kim works at Mansfield Plumbing products, and he is finishing his electrical engineering degree from North Central Technical College. Mary Jean has returned to college to complete her teaching certification. Submitted by: Mary Jean Carr

William J. Close Family

70 THE WILLIAM J. CLOSE FAMILY

Will Close was born in 1862 to Samuel and Hanna Carpenter Close, the first of ten children including Delilah, Ela, Samuel Ward, Mary J., Silvester, Alla, Oliver, Virginia and Maggie. Samuel Close came from Germany to settle in Pennsylvania and later came to Mechanic Township in Holmes County.

Grandfather Close married Maretta Patterson, daughter of George and Elizabeth Patterson. They lived on a farm where Buckhorn Lake is now located. They were the parents of two children, Alda and Clarence. Both children attended Stoney Knob Country School, which was also located on Buckhorn Lake property. The Will Close Family then moved to the farm now owned by Noah J. B. Miller, east of Clark.

Alda married Dwight Harbaugh, and they lived on the Harbaugh Family Homestead northeast of Clark. Dwight was a teacher at Hardridge Country School. Later they moved to Millersburg, where Dwight worked at the depot. They were the parents of two children, Ernest and Dorothy.

Ernest was a Presbyterian minister at Taylorsville, Illinois, for 27 years until his death at age 57. He was married to Lois Buck. They were the parents of two children, Haynes and Becky. They have two grandchildren.

Dorothy was married to Loyal Davidson, who is deceased. They lived at Dover, where Dorothy still makes her home. She has a stepdaughter and two step-grandsons. She keeps busy with crafts and churchwork.

Clarence was married to Elma Patterson, the daughter of Ammiel and Florence Clementine Patterson. Around that time, Clarence and his father purchased a farm with two houses from Alonza and Calvin Kline, where they farmed together. Grandfather was a land assessor at one time. He was an old-time fiddler. There are pleasant memories of evenings spent with grandfather playing the violin and my father chording on the old treadle organ or playing the mouth organ. They were members of the Clark Methodist Church. Grandfather died March 21, 1931, and Grandmother died October 2, 1947, with burial at the Millersburg Cemetery.

Clarence and Elma Close are the parents of one daughter, Lorna, and a son that died at birth.

Lorna was married to Carl Hoxworth. They lived at Canton for six years, then purchased the other Kline farm in 1946, which joined the one my Dad and grandfather bought back in 1913 in Mechanic Township. Carl was a farmer and drove school bus for 18 years in Clark School District.

Carl and Lorna are parents of Jerry and Wanda. The family were members of the Clark Presbyterian Church. There are six grandchildren.

Some dates of births and deaths are: Clarence Close, b. October 1890 - d. May 1968; Alma Close, b. September 1893 - d. March 1976; Carl Hoxworth, b. October 1912 - d. March 1982; All of these are buried in the Clark Cemetery. Submitted by: Lorna Hoxworth
